Children’s Library Use

The Library’s collection is intended to support the teaching and research needs of UC San Diego faculty, students, and staff. Moreover, the Library supports open Internet access, permitting potential viewing of materials unsuitable for children. Children must be accompanied and supervised by a parent or adult at all times. Parents are responsible for children's use of the Library and their access to electronic resources.

Enforcement & Reporting

Library use is a privilege, not a right. Violations of these policies will be reported and consequences enforced. Anyone violating these policies may be asked to leave the Library and refused future access. Such persons may be subject to warning, suspension, prosecution, forfeiture, requests for restitution, civil fines, and/or criminal penalties.

If an individual or group is not adhering to Library policies, individual users may point it out. Concerns, problems, or policy violations may also be reported to any Library staff member. Non-immediate issues or comments may also be reported via this form.
