Sir

Nov. 6 Nov. 1819

We have the satisfaction to inform you that our endeavors in behalf of your claim for damages for the loss of your Cargo, have under the auspices of our Pro. been productive of partial success, the Claimants having received a verdict for compensation from the Defendant Sig. Lippant, subject however to an arrangement and therefore in consideration of the unfortunate circumstances not to be attributed to any direct fault of the Defendant, and to avoid other expense by protracted litigation we considered to receive  $$3^{\text{d}}$  of the respective Claims, but your demands being admitted as extremely moderate we have moved a greater proportion for you, and for the amount of which the Charged is pro. de. ab. fact. we credit your account in  $$77.14.4$  - by _____ on Remittance  $$68.50$ We assure you that no portion
