USING THE LIBRARY

Library Access and Service Hours

lib.ucsd.edu/hours

Library Website

Start at the Library website to learn about and locate Library resources and services.

lib.ucsd.edu

Borrow

Use your UC San Diego ID to check out materials at self-checkout. For assistance, visit the Front Desks at Geisel Library and WongAvery Library.

lib.ucsd.edu/borrow-and-request

Your Library Account

Use your UC San Diego Single Sign-On credentials to access your Library account. You can view, manage, and renew items you have checked out; request books for pick up; or request books from other libraries.

lib.ucsd.edu/my-account

Course Reserves

Find books, articles, and other materials “on reserve” for your courses. You can access online materials 24/7 and access physical materials for in-library use only in the Service Hub during Geisel Library’s open hours.

lib.ucsd.edu/reserves

Access the Library Off-Campus

UC San Diego faculty, staff and students are eligible to access e-books, online journals, course reserves and databases from off campus by signing into their Library Account with their Active Directory (AD) credentials. Some library resources may require you to configure the Virtual Private Network (VPN) to be accessed from off campus.

Get the Help You Need

Have a question about the Library? Need research help? Ask us via chat, email, phone or in person.

lib.ucsd.edu/more-help

Study Spaces

Choose from a wide array of study spaces to meet your needs. Reserve group study rooms in both Library buildings in advance.

lib.ucsd.edu/study-spaces

Graduate Study Lounge

The Graduate Study Lounge, located in the WongAvery Library Breezeway, is available 24/7 for graduate students with pre-authorized card access.

lib.ucsd.edu/grad-study-lounge

Computing

PCs and Macs are available at both Geisel Library and WongAvery Library. A list of computing options is available online.

lib.ucsd.edu/computing

Data & GIS Lab

The Data & GIS Lab provides software and computational resources to find, use, work with, organize, and manage geospatial, numeric, and textual data in various formats. The Lab also serves as a campus base for GIS services and access to GIS data and software.

lib.ucsd.edu/data-gis-lab

Tech Lending

UC San Diego students, faculty, and staff can borrow items such as device chargers, adapters, headphones, and more. Select items are available from the Front Desk in Geisel Library. Check UC Library Search in advance for item availability.

lib.ucsd.edu/tech-lending

Printing and Scanning

Wēpa self-service printing is available throughout the two Library buildings. Self-service scanners, also available in each building, provide quick, high-quality scans of print materials.

VISITING THE LIBRARY

LIBRARY RESOURCES

Get Started

Find an overview of Library resources and services to aid your research and coursework.

lib.ucsd.edu/start

Find Books, Journals, Videos and More

Use UC Library Search to identify and locate books, e-books, articles, online journals, media, and more. You can also request UC San Diego-owned materials for pick up near the Front Desk in both buildings.

lib.ucsd.edu/uclibrarysearch

Find Articles

Use databases to search for articles on particular topics. Many articles are available in full-text within those databases.

lib.ucsd.edu/find-articles

Find and Request Materials from Other Libraries

If the Library doesn't have a book or article you need, request items through UC Library Search to have articles or chapters emailed or books delivered to UC San Diego for pick-up.
