

United Farm Workers of America, AFL-CIO
Election Statistical Tally
Up to and including January 9, 1976

1. There have been 356 elections representing 55,044 workers.
2. 42,185 workers have voted.
3.
 - a) UFW has won 192 elections representing 27,694 workers, which is 50.3% of total
 - b) Teamsters have won 102 elections representing 12,344 workers, which is 22.4% of total
 - c) No union has won 20 elections representing 2,294 workers, which is 4.2% of total
 - d) 42 elections have been undecided, involving 12,712 workers which is 23.1% of total. Of the undecided elections, 12, with a total of 4,266 workers are undecided due to striker votes.
4. Of the 356 elections
 - 157 were between Teamsters and UFW: total 29,882 workers.
 - Teamsters have won 69: total workers: 10,706
 - UFW has won 65: total workers: 10,340
 - Undecided: 20: total workers: 8,055
 - 163 were between UFW and no union: total workers: 23,354
 - UFW has won 126: total workers: 17,226
 - No Union has won 15: total workers 1,471
 - Undecided: 22: total workers: 657
 - 36 were between Teamsters and No Union: total workers: 1,808
 - Teamsters have won 34: total workers 1,750
 - No union has won 2: total workers: 50
 - Undecided —: total workers: —
5. Elections have been held at 161 ranches with Teamster contracts. These ranches have a total of 29,299 workers. Of the ranches with Teamster contracts:
 - 93 ranches with 11,756 workers remained Teamster
 - 63 ranches with 9,021 workers switched to UFW
 - 6 ranches with 938 workers switched to no Union
 - 19 ranches with 7,582 workers, elections are undecided.

Prepared by the Information/Research Dept. La Paz, Keene, Ca.