In California our members are about 90% of Mexican origin, while in Florida our members are mainly from the black community. Beside these large groups we have in our membership Puerto Ricans, Filipinos, Anglos, Portuguese, Arabs and other national minorities. There’s no place for racism. We’re united by our struggle, our goals, and our conviction that we all deserve to live in dignity. Racism is a weapon of the employer, an attempt to set one group of workers against another.
