"For years the farm worker has been abandoned to his own fate -- without representation, without power -- subject to the mercy and the caprice of the rancher. Our wages and working conditions have been determined from above. Our sweat and blood have fallen on the land to make other men rich. We are suffering.

The most obvious effects of this unjust system are starvation wages; labor contractors; forced migration; sickness; subhuman living conditions. We seek our basic God-given rights as human beings."
