There's so much power
In this land
resting in the grower's hand.

Why should woman
child, or man
bend their backs
and work the land,

To fill your table
every day,
and go home
hungry, anyway?

During the Christmas Season
Let us reflect on the lives of children still working in the fields.

Help end child labor.
Support the United Farm Workers Union.