The hundred and seventy-four year of our Lord, one thousand sixth day of September, in the sixth year of the reign of the Great Seal of the State of Ohio of which I am accused and charged herein and hereunder subscribed.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF,

J. A. T. I.

Non-United Farm Workers’ lettuce and grapes from California.

and urge options to join me in resisting from the purchase of

UNITED FARM WORKERS WEEK IN OHIO

Furthermore, I, John J. Gilligan, Governor of Ohio, do hereby declare the week of September 9-15 to be

NOW, THEREFORE, I, John J. Gilligan, Governor of Ohio, do hereby declare the week of September 9-15 to be

UNITED FARM WORKERS WEEK

whereas, the leadership of the AFL-CIO, the United Auto and effect by boycotting non-United Farm Workers’ lettuce and grapes from California, and working wages and working conditions, and whereas, the union has asked Americans to support the

whereas, the leadership of the AFL-CIO, the United Auto

whereas, the United Farm Workers of America, through their

SEPTEMBER 9-15, 1974

UNION FARM WORKERS WEEK

PROCLAMATION

Office of the Governor

Executive Department

State of Ohio