

United Farm Workers of America, AFL-CIO
Election Statistical Tally
Up to and including January 9, 1976

1. There have been 356 elections representing 55,044 workers.
2. 42,185 workers have voted.
3. a) UFW has won 192 elections representing 27,694 workers, which is 50.3% of total
b) Teamsters have won 102 elections representing 12,344 workers, which is 22.4% of total
c) No union has won 20 elections representing 2,294 workers, which is 4.2% of total
d) 42 elections have been undecided, involving 12,712 workers which is 23.1% of total. Of the undecided elections, 12, with a total of 4,266 workers are undecided due to striker votes.
4. Of the 356 elections
157 were between Teamsters and UFW: total 29,882 workers.
Teamsters have won 69: total workers: 10,706
UFW has won 65: total workers: 10,348
No Union has won 3: total workers: 773
Undecided: 20: total workers: 8,055
163 were between UFW and no union: total workers: 23,354
UFW has won 126: total workers: 17,226
No Union has won 15: total workers 1,471
Undecided: 22: total workers: ,657
36 were between Teamsters and No Union: total workers: 1,808
Teamsters have won 34: total workers 1,758
No union has won 2: total workers: 50
Undecided ----: total workers: ----
5. Elections have been held at 181 ranches with Teamster contracts. These ranches have a total of 29,299 workers. Of the ranches with Teamster contracts:
93 ranches with 11,758 workers remained Teamster
63 ranches with 9,021 workers switched to UFW
6 ranches with 938 workers switched to no Union
19 ranches with 7,582 workers, elections are undecided.

Prepared by the Information/Research Dept. La Paz, Keene, Ca.