Unionizing Farm Labor

Recent clash between Texas Rangers and striking Mexican-American field hands in the Rio Grande Valley point up the desirability of prompt Congressional passage of a bill establishing procedures for the unionization of farm workers. The Senate Migratory subcommittee is holding hearings on a bill sponsored by its chairman, Harry A. Williams Jr. of New Jersey, to give agricul-