

Chavez Supporters Schedule A March on Capitol in May

Special to The New York Times

DELANO, Calif., April 24—A spokesman for the United Farm Workers Organizing Committee announced today that supporters of Cesar Chavez, the farm union organizer, had scheduled a three-day march on the nation's capitol for May 1 through 3.

Pete Velasco said that approximately 10,000 persons were expected to participate in the march from Baltimore to Washington, to end with a speech by Mr. Chavez in front of the Department of Agriculture building.

The Rev. Eugene Boutilier, Washington spokesman for the farm union movement that is centered in the San Joaquin Valley of California, said the
