Gov. Jack Williams faces a recall election on the ballot. Williams faced a recall election because of his efforts to relieve the state from financial problems caused by the economic recession. However, some farmers opposed to the recall effort began a new effort to recall Williams. This time, they opposed the recall of the governor because of his support for farmers who have been affected by drought conditions.

Unrestionated

The recall effort is not unusual in the political landscape. In November, recall elections were held in Arizona and other states. In Arizona, a recall effort was launched against a state senator, but it was defeated. In November, recall elections were also held in Nevada, but those efforts were also defeated. In December, recall efforts were held in Arizona, but those efforts were also defeated.

The recall effort in Arizona is similar to those in other states. In November, recall elections were held in Nevada, but those efforts were also defeated. In December, recall efforts were held in Arizona, but those efforts were also defeated.

The recall efforts in Arizona are similar to those in other states. In November, recall elections were held in Nevada, but those efforts were also defeated. In December, recall efforts were held in Arizona, but those efforts were also defeated.

The recall efforts in Arizona are similar to those in other states. In November, recall elections were held in Nevada, but those efforts were also defeated. In December, recall efforts were held in Arizona, but those efforts were also defeated.

The recall efforts in Arizona are similar to those in other states. In November, recall elections were held in Nevada, but those efforts were also defeated. In December, recall efforts were held in Arizona, but those efforts were also defeated.