KEENE, Calif., March 2 (AP)—The United Farm Workers of America will defy a court ban on mass picketing at liquor stores in its boycott of Gallo wines, the union president, Cesar Chavez, says.

"We intend to intensify the picketing of Gallo wines throughout California as a direct challenge of Judge E. J. Leach's outrageous and unconstitutional injunction," Mr. Chavez announced Thursday at union headquarters here.

Monterey County Superior Court Judge Leach on Tuesday restricted the union to three pickets at driveways and store entrances.
