

U. F. W. Wins Lettuce Ranch

SALINAS, Calif. Sep. 10 (AP) —Cesar Chávez's United Farm Workers scored a major victory today in the battle with the teamsters to represent farm workers, winning an election at InterHarvest, the nation's biggest lettuce ranch.

The count was 1,167 for the U.F.W. and 28 for the teamsters, state officials said. There were also 18 votes for no union. The victory at InterHarvest, where the U.F.W. has had a contract since 1970, had been expected.
