

Chavez Announces Boycott

MONTEBELLO, Calif., Jan. 20 (AP) — Cesar Chavez, leader of the United Farm Workers, has announced a boycott of the Lucky Stores supermarkets. At a demonstration at one of the markets yesterday, the first anniversary of the union's strike against California and Arizona lettuce growers, Mr. Chavez said Lucky had been selected because the company and its subsidiaries carried lettuce from Bruce Church Inc., which has not reached agreement with the union.

The New York Times

Published: January 21, 1980

Copyright © The New York Times