

Judge Orders Chavez Freed

UPI

Published: August 8, 1981

A judge ordered Cesar Chavez, leader of the United Farm Workers, and nine followers released from jail without bail today despite their vow to remain behind bars until given access to a lettuce farm where they were arrested on trespassing charges. Judge Bernard B. McCullough of Justice Court issued the order when Mr. Chavez and his followers appeared before him for arraignment.